Day 7 - Lecture on Date Selection

Day 7 was classroom day at the Mandarin Oriental Hotel. The lecture of the day was on date selection. In Feng Shui, an important element is the time aspect. Every aspect of a property's Feng Shui may look right but if the wrong time is selected to implement changes, the Feng Shui will not only fail but can be detrimental to the property as well.

Examples were given and worked out to fine-tune the understanding of time selection before we progressed to new methods of date selection.
