

INTRODUCTION

The goal of choosing two different academies to learn the metaphysical science of Feng Shui is the intrinsic desire to explore similarities and differences in methods, tools and approaches and to achieve a double diploma in this field. The selected academies of my choice were:

Yap Cheng Hai Academy www.ychacademy.com

Mastery Academy of Chinese Metaphysics www.masteryacademy.com

Both academies teach in modules and the education can take up to three and even more years to master all modules. The final course of both study programs is the graduate course. My impressions of both graduate courses are published on this website to provide the reader an idea on what Feng Shui is about.

Feng Shui Mastery Series in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia Graduate Master Practitioner Course October 18-24, 2005

Students from different countries came together to go for the Mastery Academy of Chinese Metaphysics Feng Shui Diploma for the Feng Shui Master Practitioner.

The course was taught by Master Joey Yap personally in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia at the Mastery Academy of Chinese Metaphysics.
